

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

An extremely pretty social feature of yesterday was the tea given from 5 to 7 P. M. by Miss Nell Christian, of 1120 West Avenue, in honor of Miss Mary Taylor, one of the most attractive debutantes of the winter, and the daughter of the late Robert Lee Taylor, of this city.

Decorations in red and white were developed in red and white roses, carnations and chrysanthemums, with palms and smilax, and proved most effective and artistic, the color idea being prettily carried out in the dainty refreshments served.

Other debutantes of this season who were among those asked to meet Miss Taylor are: Misses Elsie Ingram, Barbara Egan, Frances Myers, Berna Hamilton, Helen Adams, Ella Buck, Edith Taylor, Lora Crump, Martha Martin, Josephine Elliott, Claire Smith, Julia Putney Cone, Fanny Miller, Susie McGuire, Stella Moore, Eleanor Lindsey, Peachy Fleet, Virginia Watkins, Virginia Whiteley, Anne Royall, Dudley Powers, Helen Tanner and Mary Crump.

The rubber will be collected, sorted and sold, and the proceeds will go towards the Free Kindergarten and Neighborhood Work on Brook Avenue.

Many of the druggists, shoe merchants and automobile dealers are saving up old rubber for Tuesday, November 17th. The ladies are directing the work by not allowing rubber day to pass without contributing some old or new rubber to help the little children on the north side of the city.

Must Come Up to Standard.
Subject to the following provisions, which have governed for years, the amounts now available:

First. That no payment whatever shall be made in any case except upon an account properly itemized and sworn to, as required by law, and showing proper expenses or liabilities which have been incurred.

Second. That no company or battery shall be paid the whole or any part of the sum allotted to it unless it has the full complement of officers, commissioned, qualified and uniformed, according to law and regulations, and unless it has not less than the minimum of enlisted men now required by law.

Third. That no payment shall, in any case, be made except for expenses and liabilities incurred for necessary military purposes, such as are contemplated in the laws for the government of the Virginia Volunteers.

An to Liabilities.
Special attention is invited to the fact that it is provided that "no company or battery shall be paid the whole or any part of the sum allotted to it unless it has the full complement of officers, commissioned, qualified and uniformed, according to law and regulations, and unless it has not less than the minimum of enlisted men now required by law. And, also, the fact that, under the law, it is necessary, in order that accounts may be promptly and properly considered and acted upon, that a statement should be made upon each account submitted, showing the number of officers uniformed, the number of enlisted men in the company or battery."

The following interpretation upon the words, "liabilities incurred, or to be incurred," by the Military Board at a meeting held March 29, 1909, must be regarded in submitting accounts for allotment; viz: "The word liabilities incurred, or to be incurred, shall be understood to mean obligations entered into by contract, or fixed charges which are known, and not approximate estimates."

SHOWS COMPANY IN FINE SHAPE

President Morgan Explains Nature of Virginia-Carolina $12,000,000 Bond Issue.

In a statement made public yesterday, President Samuel T. Morgan, of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, discusses the bond issue of $12,000,000, which will be ratified at a special meeting of stockholders to be held at Jersey City on Tuesday next. Concerning the earnings of the corporation, it is shown that the net revenue for the past seven years, up to May 31st last, was $25,190,158.83, or an average of $3,598,594.10.

The authorized issue of bonds is $15,000,000, although the present issue is for $12,000,000, with the provision that the remaining $3,000,000 shall not be issued within three years. From the proceeds the present outstanding consolidated trust bonds, $1,500,000, will be paid off. The new issue, $300,000, will be retired each year.

Value of Physical Properties.
President Morgan says in his statement, which is made to the syndicate managers in New York, that the physical properties owned by the company and by the subsidiary companies all of whose stock it owns, have actually cost $25,000,000.

This does not include properties in Germany which cost more than $3,000,000. The amount of the total assets, after the issuance of the new bonds, in excess of all other liabilities, is put down at more than $17,000,000.

During the thirteen years since the organization of the company improvements of plants, new plants and other things have been made from income to the amount of $6,582,897.65 and charged to operating expenses. The company has also paid to holders of preferred stock fifty-two consecutive dividends, amounting to $11,270,343.02, and to holders of common stock $23,478,110, making a total to stockholders of $14,694,840.18. It had further accumulated up to May 31, 1908, undivided profits of $7,831,847.29.

LAWYERS HEARD IN FLINT SUIT

North Carolina Land Case Submitted to Circuit Court of Appeals.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, with Circuit Judges Goff and Pritchard and District Judges Morris and Brawley in attendance.

The following case was argued:

No. 23, Charles R. Flint, plaintiff in error, vs. Coffin and MacDonald, defendants in error. In error to the Circuit Court at Asheville, N. C. Cause argued by J. H. Merrimon, of Asheville, N. C., for the plaintiff in error, and by E. J. Justice and R. C. Strudwick, of Greensboro, N. C., for the defendants in error, and submitted.

This was an action brought by Coffin & MacDonald against Charles R. Flint and other parties to recover damages alleged to have been sustained by breach of two contracts relating to the manufacture of timber into lumber from lands known as the "Whittier Lands" in Swain county, N. C. Upon trial in the Circuit Court of the United States, at Greensboro, the plaintiff, Coffin & MacDonald, recovered and were given a judgment for $85,000.

Ground of Defense.
Flint, plaintiff in error in the Circuit Court of Appeals, sets up as defenses: (1) That the attachment and notice of sale of the lands were void, under the jurisdiction upon the court of the party or res; (2) that he was not a party to or connected with either of the contracts sued on; (3) that he did not, and never had, owned the "Whittier Lands," and had no right to sell them; (4) that the Circuit Court of the United States for the Western District of North Carolina, having jurisdiction thereof, had adjudicated the rights of the defendants in error under the contract of September 15, 1894, and they were, therefore, estopped to maintain this action; (5) that the contract of June 8, 1895, provided for a method of ascertaining damages for all breaches of the contract of September 15, 1894, and the defendants in error were estopped to maintain this action; (6) that the defendants in error had repudiated and canceled both of the said contracts, and were estopped to maintain this action; (7) that the only damages recoverable for any breach of the contract of September 15, 1894, were for the loss of improvement made for the execution of said contract; (8) that the plaintiff in error did not owe the defendants in error anything.

Court adjourned until this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

There will be no cases in the call to-day, but the court will hold a conference session as to the cases heretofore argued and submitted.

Important Point Involved.
E. J. Best, one of the leading lawyers in the State, is in the city attending the Circuit Court of Appeals, and is stopping at the Jefferson. The case of Snipes vs. Southern Railway, which was argued by Mr. Best here in May last, has been decided by the Circuit Court of Appeals in his favor. The case is one of the most important damage suits decided by the court at this term, and holds that Engineer Snipes was not a fellow-servant of the conductor, who was in charge of the train on which he was injured. The court also decided the constitutional question involved in favor of Mr. Best's contention. George L. Rembert, of Columbia, S. C., who is associated with Mr. Best in the case, is also in the city.

The following hours will be observed by the court during the term: Morning session, from 10:30 to 12:30; recess, from 12:30 to 2:30; afternoon session, from 2:30 to 4:30.

TO SETTLE SALE OF KOSHER MEAT

Rivalry Among Butchers Leads to Business Meeting of Orthodox Jews.

Rivalry among the dealers who supply kosher meat to the orthodox Jews has aroused a quarrel which has caused the calling together of a committee at 3 P. M. to-morrow in Fraternity Hall to settle the difficulty.

It is charged that an attempt was made to form a kosher meat trust, which was crushed almost as soon as it appeared. Then other charges were made against the dealers. One is charged with smoking cigarettes on Sunday, another with working at his trade on the Sabbath, and a third with selling meat other than the kosher kind—all of which is forbidden by orthodox Jewish law.

It is said that the whole trouble is due to business rivalry. Therefore a mass-meeting of the orthodox Jews, according to a paper which is being circulated among them, will be held to-morrow to settle the matter.
